CMDS Auction – This event is held once every other year. It is CMDS' biggest fundraiser. Food, music and an auction provide CMDS' parents with a fun night out. It is an opportunity to help support the school while purchasing some great and often unique items (such as autographed sports memorabilia, foot stools hand-decorated by your child's class, weekend getaways, themed baskets sponsored by your child's class, spa certificates, etc.).

If you have any questions or have any items you wish to donate, please contact Meredith Campbell at 767-0548 or Melissa McBryde at 757-9971.

Please check the box by those events you wish to volunteer for. Return completed forms to the school office.

- Class Projects - (Preschool) Volunteers work closely with the art teacher on auction items to be decorated by the Preschool students.
- Class Projects – (Grade School) Volunteers work closely with the art teacher on auction items to be decorated by the Grade School students.
- Class Baskets – Coordinates the themed auction baskets to be sponsored by each class. Will work closely with room parents.
- Solicitation Committee – Volunteers secure donated items from local businesses to be sold at auction.
- Set-Up and Display – Will work the day before and the day of to display items up for auction.
- Flowers and Decorations – Volunteers will decorate the venue for the auction.
- Check-In Greeters – Volunteers will help check in guests as they arrive.
- Live Auction – Volunteers help coordinate the Live Auction and work closely with the auctioneer and spotters.
- Absentee Bidders – Volunteers place and organize bids for those unable to attend.
- Clean-Up – Volunteers will stay and help clean up after event.
