

PRIVATE LESSONS

Private music lessons are taught on the CMDS campus in the Wilson Ross Educational Building in 30-minute sessions. Lesson days and times are set according to student-teacher availability during the school day, as well as after school, on an individual basis. Advanced students may take 45- or 60-minute lessons with instructor recommendation.

ABOUT US

The Maxine Moore Music Academy, founded in 2005, was made possible by a generous donation from Mr. Ray Moore in memory of his wife, the late Maxine Moore. Our mission is to bring glory to God, to provide excellent musical instruction, and to enable our students to achieve their personal best in musical expression. All of our instructors are dedicated Christian professionals with college degrees and/or Music Conservatory Certificates in their fields.

NO MAKE-UP POLICY

Each student receives a copy of his/her instructor's schedule, along with contact information for each MMA student. Should a conflict arise, students should make arrangements to swap lesson days/times with another student, or he or she may choose to forfeit the missed lesson. CMDS students with scheduled school-sponsored field trips or class trips may request a make-up lesson (if it is not possible to swap lessons). The instructor must be notified of this situation as soon as possible. All teacher-cancelled lessons will be made up. No refunds will be given.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Private lessons will be cancelled any time that Christ Methodist Day School is closed for bad weather. These lessons may be made up by calling your instructor. No refunds will be given.

ROCK 3:16

Rock and Praise Band Class

Developed by our guitar instructor, Rick Forbus, several years before "The School of Rock" movie was released, ROCK 3:16 is a one-hour class consisting of three to six students on complementary instruments (guitar, bass, drums, keyboards, vocals). Assembled by age, ability level and, when possible, taste in music, students learn how to work and perform as a band, in a hands-on setting using pop, rock, contemporary country and praise music. Prior music lessons and his/her own instrument are pre-requisites for this exciting and innovative class.

ROCK 3:16 follows the same calendar and schedule as private lessons do.

Because ROCK 3:16 is a unique group study class, each member is equally important and vital to a successful learning experience for the band as a whole and for each of its members. Therefore, please sign below if you agree to the following:

1. I agree to attend every scheduled one-hour class unless I am too ill to attend or have an emergency, in which case I will notify Mr. Forbus ASAP. I understand there will be no make-up classes or refunds.
2. I understand that any inclement weather class cancellation or instructor cancellation (by Mr. Forbus) will be made up at the convenience of the majority of the class.
3. I agree to perform with my band at the year-end ROCK 3:16 Showcase.
4. I understand that ROCK 3:16 tuition is due either in full at registration; by two 50% payments at registration w/balance due in 30 days; or, if agreed upon by the director, four 25% payments due at registration with the remaining payments to follow on the 1st day of the next three months.
